A Fresh Look at Loomis

If you're reading this issue of Loomis Life, odds are you have visited our website in the past. If you haven't done so recently, we invite you to return and see some of the exciting enhancements we've made at www.loomiscommunities.org.

The more modern design showcases a fresh look, eased navigation, and helpful features for visitors, such as these:

Welcome Home

You'll have no problem finding what you need with the newly designed search bar. Access our communities and their various features or information about diversity, our leadership team, events, and other topics of interest. Once you select a community, you can utilize the search bar to find floor plans, pricing, and more details. Click on the menu items to see expanded options. Click on the green "Loomis Communities" tree to head back to the home page at any time.

News and Noteworthy

Curious about happenings at The Loomis Communities, want to check out past editions of Loomis Life, or interested in our sponsorships and collaborations? The site's news features will provide that and more. Click on .pdf formatted and archived articles.

This section also keeps you in-the-know with the latest COVID-19 updates and communications, dating back to March 2020.

Worlds of Positive Aging

Look no further for a retirement community of dynamic residents with ample activities and services. Click through this section of the site to check out each community's main features. Then dive deeper into a more expansive list of the benefits a home at Loomis affords.

This is just a sampling of what you'll find at the new and improved www.loomiscommunities.org. Go ahead and check us out! Learn about life at Loomis.

Once you've found the perfect fit and options that matter most to you in a community, connect with one of the marketing managers. We'd love to show you the community in person.

What's On The Calendar?

The Loomis Communities prides itself on a calendar not only full of activities, but full of fulfilling ones. If you're a member of our waitlist, then you know this to be true firsthand as you receive each month's calendar of rich offerings.

The revamped website makes it even easier for anyone to see what is happening at any time. Whereas the former site relied upon a Word and .pdf document style format, the new version has a clickable, more user-friendly feel--even sortable by community.

Clicking the "View Events" button from the main page (about halfway down) brings visitors to the master calendar. Blue dots represent one or more events on a single day.

Clicking a specific event or program will reveal all associated details, such as location, date, time, extra notes, and any associated costs.

You will have the additional option to share the event to your social media channels and can also RSVP to certain events. Find out what's available to you right now, as well as upcoming activities, by clicking here.

Happy Dogust!

Did you know that August is National Dog Month? At The Loomis Communities, we love man's best friend and welcome them in all in all shapes and sizes. Let's meet a few of our canine companions.

Malala and Linda Gordon

Pablo and Esta Pekow

Maisy and Nancy Young

Shamus and Graeme Veitch

Best in Show - 3rd Year in a Row

The Loomis Communities boasts three vibrant, engaging communities with picturesque campuses, but it is truly the residents--and special voters out there--who really make it a place of distinction.

Loomis Village is proud to announce that it has once again been named "Best Retirement Community in The Pioneer Valley" by the Daily Hampshire Gazette's Readers Choice Award. This special community was also chosen as "Best Assisted Living in The Pioneer Valley" for a second, consecutive win. Additionally, voters selected Loomis Lakeside at Reeds Landing as "Best Nursing Center in The Pioneer Valley" for a second year running.

We extend our gratitude to those who took the time to recognize us in this special way, and we pledge to continue the important work of living up to such honors.
